

THE CASE AGAINST SUSAN COLLINS

GUN SAFETY

- After more than two decades in office, Collins has never cast a vote that has led to the enactment of a new or strengthened gun safety law.<sup>1</sup>
- Collins voted to give gun manufacturers broad immunity against liability claims.<sup>2</sup>
- She twice voted for amendments to allow concealed carry reciprocity—and co-sponsored one of the amendments.<sup>3</sup>
- Collins supported repealing a rule that prevented some people with serious mental illness from buying firearms.<sup>4</sup>
- Collins voted against bans on high-capacity magazines and assault weapons.<sup>5</sup>
- Before 2014, Collins received nearly $20,000 from Richard Dyke, former owner of Bushmaster Firearms, and his family.<sup>6</sup>
